A. Subramanya Iyer Esquire B.A.,
The Inspector-General of Police in Mysore.

To

G. Aravamudu Iyengar Esquire B.A.B.L.,
The Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

SIR,

I have the honor to enclose for perusal a note on the Korchars of Tumkur District prepared by the Superintendent of Police Railways and C.I.D. to bring the members of the tribe under the operations of the Criminal Tribes Regulation.

The origin, history, habits etc. have been detailed at length in the marginally noted Nos. of this office when cases against Korchars of Kolar and Bangalore and Kormars of Hassan and Kadur were sent up for declaration as criminal tribes in the respective Districts.

1. Recommendation note on Korchars of Kolar District No. 7523/534 C.T. dated 2-5-1918.
2. Recommendation note on Kormars of Hassan and Kadur Districts No. C. 605/20-21 dated 23-8-1920.
3. Recommendation note on Korchars of Bangalore District No. C 1433/20 dated 23/27th November 1920.

The population of Korchars in Tumkur District is 616 consisting of 207 men, 181 women, and 228 children, who reside in 54 villages of nine taluks of the District excepting Kunigal as shown in the statement enclosed. The evil reputation and ruthless nature of the class and their violent depredatory charactor have always been dreaded by the people. They think that robbery and dacoity are not only lucrative but also as heriditary profession.

Statements A to D herewith forwarded establish their criminality in the systematic commission of non-bailable offences both in this State and in the Madras presidency. Of the 207 men (which includes boys of the age of 7 and above) 39 persons have been convicted 87 times in the courts of this State and in the courts of adjoining British Districts, for dacoity, robbery, house breaking anf theft and also under the preventative sections of the Criminal Procedure Code. They have joint convictions in 21 courts which includes courts of the foreign magistracy. Their field of depredation is not limited to this State alone as is seen in Statement C. Only a few families in Tiptur, Chicknaikanhalli and Maddagiri possess lands which are leased to others on scanty returns, and they do not cultivate them as their nomadic instinct has not disappeared. Their means of livelihood are not sufficient to lead an honest life. Hence I recommend that the tribe of Korchars living in Tumkur District may be notified under section 3 of Criminal Tribes Regulation and the District Magistrate of the District ordered to have them registered under section 4.

The conditions prescribed under section 10 of Criminal Tribes Regulation are insufficient to keep them under proper control and I therefore find it desirable to have their movements restricted to a defined area of a Taluk. Their movements at present, may be restricted to the limits of a taluk where they are living and where they can eke out an honest living if they make up their mind to do so.

The necessary draft notifications are enclosed.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Inspector General of Police.

Note by the Superintendent of Police Railways and C.I.D. on the Korbhars of Tumkur District.

I Origin and history of the tribe.

1.Note on Korchars of Kolar District dated 29-4-1918.

2.Note on Kormars of Hassan and Kadur Districts dated 17-8-1920.

3.Note on Korchars of Bangalore Dist, dated 22-11-1920.

The origin, history and development of a criminal tribe known as Korchars, Koravars and Yerukulas in the State have been sufficiently dealt with in the marginally noted reports of this office and I deem it unnecessary to recaptulate the matter over again in this report. As already indicated they form a connecting link between the Korchars or Kormars of this State and Korvars of Southern India and the Yerukulas of Northern parts who were carrying grain and other articles of human consumption from the east to the west coast on donkeys bullocks etc.

II Distribution of the tribe.

The advent of Railways and improvement of roads having virtually deprived them of their calling as carriers, and their pack bullocks having died during the prevelence of great famine they found facilities to settle down in many of the Districts of the province where there is sufficient shelter to suit a nomadic class . The total population of Korbhars in Tumkur District is 616 consisting of 207 men, 181 women, and 228 children residing in 54 villages of which 10 belong to Pavagada, 12 to Tiptur, 12 to Chicknaikanhalli; 10 to Maddagiri, and 2 to sira 3 to Kortagere, 2 to Tumkur, 1 to Gubbi and 2 to Thuruvekere sub taluk as shown in the enclosed statement.

III-Criminality of the tribe.

The bad reputation of Korchars of wandering instinct is well established by perpetration of high road decoities and robberies and occasionally house breaking and theft within a radious of 30 tp 50 miles of their encampment. Of the 207 males (which includes boys of the age of 7 and above) 39 persons have been convicted 87 times of which 83 are under pencal code and 4 under good behaviour sections of the Criminal Procedure Code, as shown in statement A appended. The convictions under penal code are for dacoity, robbery, house breaking and theft and ordinary theft.

Statement B shows the joint conviction of the tribe under report. It will be seen from it that 30 men of the tribe have joint convictions in 21 courts of the State and in courts of foreign magistracy along with the members of the State as well with those of Ananthapur District.

Statement C shows their field of ~~xxxxxxxx~~ depradations which extends to the whole State excepting Mysore District, and to the adjoining British taluks of Kalyanadrdog , Dharmavaram, Ananthapur and Penugonda. They have been convicted 59 times in several courts of Tumkur District, once in Hassan and once in Chitaldrug, thrice in Bangalore 6 times in Chickmagalore and 17 times in British courts. They are not only related to each other but also related to the Yerakulas of Ananthapur and Bellary Districts who are otherwise known as Korchars by ties of marriage, they are also declared as criminal tribes under the Indian Act of 1911 in Ananthapur District.

The convictions so far traced only relate to the reported and detected cases. They are also concerned in innumarable undetected and unreported cases for which they are responsible.

Statement D shows the economic condition of the tribe Of the 125 families distributed in the several Taluks of the District only 36 families posssess 224 acres and 34 guntas of land which they have adopted to pass of as agriculturists and to screen themselves from the operations of the good behaviour section of the Criminal Procedure Code. The lands are very inferior and they are seldom cultivated by them. They are always leased out on scanty return.

I am aware while as Superintendent of Police Tumkur District that attempts were made by Messrs. L. Krishna Rao and Y.V. Krishnamurti to settle more than 20 families of the Korchars who were trouble-some on the borders at Chelur of gubbi Taluk by giving them lands and by opening a school for their children. A writer constable was, deputed to impart instructions to the children during day and to adults at night. The adult males were concerned in many cases and convicted. They stayed therefor about 10 years and but never cultivated the lands given to them. They were now and then sending petitions to change their place of residence to some other District. No permission was granted for sometime. But in the end their incessent cry for change became intolarable and permission was granted in 1914. Some of them are now in Shimoga District some in Chitaldrug and others in Kadur. Only 5 families are now at Chelur. Thus it will be seen that their nomadic instinct cannot be changed inspite of the best endeavours. The pressure of constant surveillance was resented by them as unendurable and their restless nature never allowed them to settle down to agriculture.

It will be seen by the foregoing that Korchars of Tumkur are addicted to the systematic commission of nonbailable offences and are liable to be declared as criminal tribe under section 3 of Criminal Tribes Regulation and a direction issued to the District Magistrate of Tumkur to register the members under section 4 of the same regulation.

As the movements of Korchars of this District extend nearly all over the State and to bordering Taluks of Ananthpur and Bellary Districts the provisions under Section 10 of Criminal Tribes Regulation are inadequate to control them, and I deem it necessary to limit their movements to the place where they are known. I therefore recommend that their movements be confined to the limits of a taluk where they are living, which is extensive enough for earning honest livelihood if they determine to do so. If approved a draft letter to Government will be submitted.
